We don't have anything very soon--but we do these trips to cities with violent crime problems like today in Memphis every few weeks. Would that be interesting?

Actually yes, that could be really interesting. Dunno if its a whole show but certainly could be worth going to the city and doing a story/interview there.

When/where is the next one?

The energy boom in America's West is currently a big focus so if there is a Pruitt trip we could time a show with it would be most interesting.

Thanks!

Hi Kelly,

In case you have better things to do on the weekend than watch my show, we often "take the show on the road" to various newsy locations or to highlight a certain story.

In the past few months---
I have anchored from
Jerusalem--previewing the President's trip to the ME
Harrisburg PA on the day of the president's first 100 day speech
Mar-a-Largo after the Syria strike and Chinese summit

Among others.....

We have been looking at few stories that focus on the President's policies effect on real people--- including

EPA---Deregulation in the energy sector and the oil/gas boom in CO/WY/SD/OK. Could we perhaps time our show from one of these states with a visit by Pruitt and interview him on site?

DOJ/AG--A show from the border. Could we time with visit/interview with AG Sessions about the admin's policy and building the wall?

If you, or any of your colleagues, have other ideas that tie in with a cabinet sec visit (on a weekend) that highlights a certain policy and its effect on everyday Americans, pls let me know.

Thanks and all the best,
Leland
